

Kim Yudam

hkseol83@gmail.com

Profile

Kim Yudam is a South Korean novelist whose work explores themes of care, gender, and social precarity through a blend of literary realism and speculative imagination. Her fiction examines forms of quiet resistance in contemporary Korean society. She has received major literary awards in Korea and has participated in literary translation projects.

Education

- B.A. in Korean Language and Literature (2007)
Yonsei University, Seoul, South Korea

Literary Career

Debut

- “Pin Carry” (핀 캐리), short story
Winner, Seoul Shinmun New Year’s Literary Contest (2016)

Books

- Space M (스페이스 M), Speculative Novella, 2024
- No Curtain Call For me (커튼콜은 사양할게요), Novel, 2022
- The Caring Heart (돌보는 마음), Short Story Collection, 2022
- Women at Ease (이완의 자세), Novel, 2021
- Tambourine (탬버린), Short Story Collection, 2019

Awards

- Winner of the 1st Kim Yu-jeong Literary Award – for the short story “An (安)” (2021)
- Winner of the 38th Shin Dong-yup Literary Award – Tambourine (2020)